Art Unit: 1751

This application is a DIV of S.N. 10/123,028 (filed 4/12/02, now U.S. 6,921,497), which application is a CIP of S.N. 09/416,720 (filed 10/13/99, now U.S. 6,572,792). Claims 1-43 are currently pending.

Applicant should update the continuing data at page 1 of the instant specification to reflect the current information (above).

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

As in the parent application, it appears that the drawing description at pages 34 and 37 (of the specification) refer to the wrong drawing figures. For example, the description at page 34 (results of Figures 26 and 27) should recite Figures 25 and 26.

Clarification is required.

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Art Unit: 1751

Claims 1-32 and 34-43 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-42 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,921,497. This is a double patenting rejection.

It is noted that the instant application is listed as a DIV of S.N. 10/123,028 (U.S. 6,921,497). However, each of the above listed claims were examined and issued in the parent application.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Art Unit: 1751

Claim 33 is rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 42 of U.S. Patent No. 6,921,497. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other. The instant claim encompasses allowed claim 42 of U.S. 6,921,497.

Claims 1, 6-9, 13-14, 23-33 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-2 of U.S. Patent No. 6,572,792. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both the instant claims and the claims of parent 6,572,792 are drawn to copper compositions containing the same/similar properties. A careful review of the disclosures indicates that the metals/methods described in the claims contain significant overlapping properties and are not patentably distinct. It is noted that in the parent application (6,921,497), applicant submitted a terminal disclaimer to overcome this rejection.

Claims 1-43 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-43 of copending Application No. 10/10/823,403. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Art Unit: 1751

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 33 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP 04-099236.

JP '236 discloses contacting molten Cu with a carbon source (CO), and an iterative cycling process wherein the saturation remains the same or increases (pages 6-7 of the English translation; examples 7 and 8).

The reference is anticipatory.

In view of the foregoing, the above claims have failed to patentably distinguish over the applied art.

The remaining references listed on forms 892 and 1449 have been reviewed by the examiner and are considered to be cumulative to or less material than the prior art references relied upon in the rejection above.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Mark Kopec whose telephone number is (571) 272-1319. The examiner
